RECENT EVENTS

Collin-Fannin County Medical Society's (CFCMS's) quarterly CME Dinner Meeting was NOT a CME presentation, but it was EXCEPTIONAL!!

The new Sheraton-McKinney was a breath of fresh air as a venue, and the meal was outstanding.

The evening began with the unveiling of the new CFCMS website by Mr. Russ Kabir of SolutionEgg (www.collinfannincms.com). Details, below.

Drs. Muriel Marshall, D.O., DrPH, Health Authority, and, Chief Epidemiologist, Jawaaid Asghar, MBBS, MHA, both of the Collin County Health Care Services followed by presenting information on the Zika virus. (Click ZIKA)

And, the evening's main event by Plano psychiatrist, Alan Koenigsberg, MD, CFCMS Board of Censors and Executive Board member, was outstanding. Dr. Koenigsberg hit it out of the park. Attendees received relaxing reminders of why physicians are physicians, and, some well known, but forgotten, take aways about taking care of themselves and their families while caring for their patients.

Baby-sitting, dinner and games were provided for attending physicians' children.

CFCMS's Legislative Committee-House of Delegates meet to preview the TMA's resolution content and schedule, as well as discuss their own resolution.

The Collin-Fannin County Medical Society's (CFCMS's) Legislative Committee and House of Delegates met Sunday, April 17 on the campus of Collin College to discuss the upcoming TMA TEXMED conference. After reviewing each resolution that would be presented for debate during the TMA House of Delegates, the group agreed to draft a resolution to support discussions coming out of the CFCMS's Executive Board regarding the Texas Medical Board's (TMB's) leadership and methodology. Of primary concern, is the frequent dissemination, via the TMB's regularly published announcements, of physician sanctions for administrative, but NON-patient care, disciplinary actions.

CFCMS's House of Delegates (HODs) to the TMA gathered at TMA's annual TEXMED conference.

On April 29 and 30, the Collin-Fannin County Medical Society's (CFCMS's) HODs to the TMA enjoyed the TMA's annual TEXMED conference by attending committee and council meetings and voting on many issues before the TMA HOD, including:

- 1) Carrie de Moor's, MD, FACEP, acceptance, by unanimous vote, as the Young Physician representative to the TMA Board of Trustees;
- 2) electing TMA's 2017-2018 President, now President-Elect, Carlos Cardenas, MD, Gastroenterologist, Edinburg, TX (Click for information on Dr. Carlos Cardenas); and,
- 3) presenting its own resolution to the TMA HOD (see resolution link, above).

CFCMS's resolution was not adopted by the TMA HOD; however, it raised an important issue that will no doubt be revisited.
