RECENT EVENTS

Collin-Fannin County Medical Society's (CFCMS's) annual Hawaiian Falls social outing was another success. Everyone had a "Spl-a-st"!

Over 250 physician members and their families came out on the evening of Thursday, July 21 to have dinner, visit, swim and enjoy no lines for all the water rides. The evening was perfect.

RECENT EVENTS

Collin-Fannin County Medical Society's (CFCMS's) annual Legislative/House of Delegates Committee meeting was fortunate enough to be updated by TMA's Associate Director of Advocacy, Mr. Troy Alexander, regarding TMA's 2017 legislative program.

On Sunday, August 21, attending physician members learned of TMA's 2017 proactive agenda, the legislative initiatives TMA will be preparing to defend against and information pertaining to the upcoming elections!

RECENT EVENTS

Collin-Fannin County Medical Society's (CFCMS's) quarterly CME Dinner Meeting was held at the Sheraton-McKinney on Thursday, August 25. Physician members attending were updated and informed about Medicare and MACRA by TMA's Director, Research and Data Analysis, Ms. Donna Kinney.
