COLLIN-FANNIN COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY (CFCMS) ENJOYS A GREAT WINE SOCIAL!

NEXT EVENT: CFCMS MEMBER, DR. ALAN KOENIGSBERG, PLANO PSYCHIATRIST, WILL MAKE A PRESENTATION AT THE SHERATON-MCKINNEY NEXT MONTH!!

RECENT EVENTS

Collin-Fannin County Medical Society (CFCMS) held a fantastic wine social at Lonestar Wine Cellars in McKinney, this past Thursday evening.

Dr. Carrie de Moor, President, CFCMS, joined fellow physicians and Circle of Friends members for light fare and Texas home-grown cabernets, merlots, chardonnays and a pinot grigio. It was a beautiful evening where wine tasters met, mingled, imbibed and even enjoyed a little March Madness.

RECENT EVENTS

Carrie de Moor, MD, FACEP, McKinney, officially throws her hat in the ring for a TMA trustee position.

The Collin-Fannin County Medical Society (CFCMS) proudly nominates its current president and up-and-coming young leader, Carrie de Moor, MD, FACEP, for the TMA Board of Trustees, Young Physician Section.

Dr. de Moor is president of the CFCMS, and, she is president of her ER practice group - Code 3 Emergency Partners, L.L.C.

Dr. de Moor says, "I believe that we are in a critical time for medicine and that our willingness to stand boldly in defense of the House of Medicine is absolutely crucial.

Young Physicians MUST engage themselves on the front lines of advocacy and fight for our future today. I believe that I maintain the skillset and experience to help continue to lead our young doctors during this time and to provide fresh ideas for the future of TMA to the Board of Trustees."

Everyone at the CFCMS couldn't agree more and extends best wishes and offers any and all help in running for this prestigious and important seat on the Young Physician Section's Board of Trustees.

Dr. de Moor will stand for election on Saturday morning, April 30, 2016, during the House of Delegates at TMA's TEXMED in Dallas at the Hilton Anatole.
